

Media Policy

Queensway Navigation Co. Ltd shall endeavor to respond quickly and effectively to all incidents with the aim to minimize the risk of human injury or loss of life and damage to property and to the environment, and to ensure that all necessary steps are taken to protect the company's public image.

The Master and the crew, as well as the office personnel, shall not release any information to the media, or accept any responsibility whatsoever, in case one of the vessels managed by the Company is involved in accident or incident such as grounding, collision, total loss, fire, oil pollution, injury or death, or matters involving the transportation of narcotic substances.

To maintain a centralized channel of communication and ensure that the information provided is accurate, official and consistent, all enquiries from the press to shipboard personnel shall be immediately directed to the company's designated Press Representative at:

373, Syngrou Avenue & 2-4 Ymittou Street
175 64 Paleo Faliro, Athens
Greece

Tel.: +30 210 94 79 000
Fax: +30 210 92 49 188
E-mail: press@queensnav.com

All requests by members of the press for statements, interviews or photographs shall be approved in advance by the company's Top Management.

Only the company's Top Management is responsible for preparing and distributing press releases to ensure the correct information regarding an incident is presented, and secure its shore and ship personnel.

The Company may use the assistance of a media consultant during a crisis.

